Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. (Matthew 7:24-25)

Oh, Lord, give me a back-bone as big as a saw log, and ribs like the sleepers under the church floor; put iron shoes on me, and galvanized breeches. And give me a rhinoceros hide for a skin, and hang a wagon load of determination up in the gable-end of my soul, and help me to sign the contract to fight the devil as long as I’ve got a fist, and bite him as long as I’ve got a tooth, and then gum him till I die. All this I ask for Christ’s sake. AMEN! (Bud

FROM THE EDITOR

I wonder, do you know the name “Moses”? Now that is a funny question! Everyone knows who Moses is and what God used him to do. But, what about Bezaleel? Do you have any idea who he is??? Let me introduce you to him. Bezaleel is a man from the tribe of Judah. He was in the group of Israelites that Moses led out of Egypt. He, along with Aholiab was appointed by God to build the tabernacle. I mean literally, physically, build the tabernacle. He answered the call of God and he made all that the Lord commanded Moses to build! Why mention him? Many times we think that to have the call of God on our lives means we need to sing, preach, or teach. NOT SO! Every believer has a call on his/her life. God has equipped you to do something to help build His kingdom. What has God called and equipped you to do? When we stand before our Lord and give account, will He be able to say that we did “all that the Lord commanded”?

THE PASTOR’S CORNER

Please welcome Brother Doug Little and his wife Joyce to our fellowship.

After pastoring in Russellville, Arkansas for 18 years, they moved to the middle Tennessee area where they have lived since 2003. Doug is an accomplished musician, soloist, and writer. But most importantly, he really loves the Lord and wants to be a blessing. Please welcome them and pray for Brother Doug as he ministers and leads us as we worship the King of Kings
